

Module 2 Map work and tour planning

Overview

This module deals with map work and tour planning. This involves studying the various aspects of tour planning, compiling an itinerary and tour budget, health and safety regulations that must be taken into account when travelling, as well as documents that are necessary for travel. Customs regulations for incoming and outbound tourists and world time zones are the last two units that complete this module.