

Module 9 Communication and customer care

Overview

This module deals with the different ways of gaining feedback from customers. This involves looking at the reasons why tourism businesses obtain customer feedback and assessing the various feedback methods. It also looks at ways of analysing customer feedback. The effect of service delivery on the profit of a tourism business completes the module.